

Cup Winners!

In 2017, Shikara claimed yet another accolade - being named the winner of the Whitley Bay Town Cup.

The team at Shikara in Whitley Bay were delighted to discover they had been named winners of the Whitley Bay Town Cup 2017.

Each year, nominations are taken for people or organisations who have made a particular impact, either by serving their local community or by hosting a rather special event.

The award was presented on 17th January 2018, by Cath Davis - chairman of North Tyneside Council.

Shikara is co-owned by Azad Miah and award-winning chef Shohid Ahmed, who was named Best Chef 2017 at the Curry Life Awards.

Since opening in 2012, Shikara restaurant has been wowing diners by successfully combining authentic flavours with a modern approach and stylish surroundings.

Both Azad and Shohid are passionate about being part of the Whitley Bay community and they frequently host special events at the restaurant, where people can enjoy amazing food whilst helping to raise valuable funds for great causes.

Congratulations to all the team.
